

How to Appeal your Property's Value

You have two opportunities to appeal your property's value

1. Meet with the Assessor's Office

The Wallowa County Assessor's Office has a solid track record of working with the citizens of Wallowa County to adjust property real market values where appropriate. Talk directly with their office to see if you can reach an agreeable value. You can reach them at:

Wallowa County Assessor
101 South River Street
Room 104
Enterprise, OR 97828

2. BoPTA Board Hearing

If you are not able to reach an agreement with the Assessor's Office, your BoPTA application will be put forward to the BoPTA Board which convenes in February with hearings beginning in March. The entire process is completed by April 15th.
