

Wallowa County Government Website Transfer has been initiated

News Release Date

10-16-2023

PLEASE NOTE that the website of the Wallowa County government has started the process of changing Website Service Providers. This process may take up to 30 business days to complete. During this timeframe, some information may not appear on the initial setup but will reappear once the transfer has been completed. If you have any questions, please get in touch with the department directly. We appreciate everyone's patience throughout this process.
